

Just for Laughs!

An English doctor was being shown around a Scottish hospital. Near the end of his visit, he saw a ward of patients with no obvious injuries.

He started to examine the first patient, but the man proclaimed:

"Fair fa' yer honest, sonsie face / Great chieftain o'the puddin' race!"

The doctor, taken aback, moved on to the next patient, who immediately said; "Some hae meat and canna eat / And some wad eat that want it."

The next patient cried out; "Wee sleekit cow'rin tim'rous beastie / O what a panic's in thy breastie!"

"Well," the English doctor muttered to his Scottish colleague, "I see you saved the psychiatric ward for last."

"Oh, no," said the Scottish doctor. "This is our serious Burns unit!"

An old man lived alone in the country. He wanted to dig his tomato garden, but it was difficult for him as the ground was hard and rocky. His only son, Vincent, who used to help him, was in prison. The old man wrote a letter to his son and described his predicament.

A few days later he received a letter from his son:

Dear Dad,

Don't dig up that garden. That's where I buried the bodies.

At 4 a.m. the next morning, FBI agents and local police arrived and dug up the entire area without finding any bodies. They apologized to the old man and left. That same day the old man received another letter from his son:

Dear Dad,

Go ahead and plant the tomatoes now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances.

Learning Opportunities

BOOK CLUB

The "Book Club" is a group of people who love to read books and enjoy discussing them. Anyone can attend a meeting, but it's helpful if you have read the book of the month. The group meets from 9:30 am to 11:30 am in the church on the 4th Friday of each month, September to May, except December.

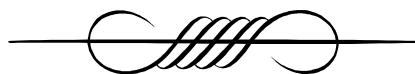

We resume on September 25, 2009 with "Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Café" by Fannie Flagg. The brochure listing the books for 2009/2010 will be available on June 7, just in time for summer reading.
